Note my marginal remarks on the typed note. I am in general agreement with the views expressed therein. It is advisable to locate the School the first of its kind in the State in Bikaner City. & to let it be supervised by the Inspector helped by an advisory committee of selected gentlemen. It is rather unlucky that a private gentleman of the City - Lala Ji - has generously offered to give a suitable site for the purpose free of cost. But for this circumstance, the initial cost practically nil would have been a great deal more. At the same time, the desirability of a permanent location for the school (i.e. premises to be a permanent building) should be kept in view & not lost sight of. The question may be taken up when funds can be conveniently made available for the purpose.

Can this Journal be located in the Mahajan's Landed Estate Branch at Bangalore & the management vested in the Director of Industries? I shall then write to the Secretary of Commerce & Industry & get the separate classes for Engineering Students & Scholars. Separate classes will be required only for Engineering & Arts Students. And as there are some of the more important Examinations in Engineering, the students will also be enabled to get an insight into the practical working of these Institutions. I should be glad if the Local Members will kindly consider this aspect of the question & favour me with their views, after consulting if necessary, with the Secretary of the Committee at Bangalore

Final Note by the Second Member of Council.

Subject:—

Establishment of Agama Schools.

In para 3 of Government Order, No.1103-13/Muz.599-18-2 dated the 28th September 1919, a sum of Rs.2,493-10-0 out of the General Muzrai Fund, was sanctioned for the establishment of a few Agama Schools and the Muzrai Superintendent was directed to elaborate and submit, for the sanction of Government, a scheme in regard to such schools.

2. In February 1920, the Muzrai Superintendent submitted a detailed scheme for establishing one central school providing for instruction to the Archaks of all the three schools - Saiva, Pancharatra and Vaighanasa - the course of study comprising lessons in:-

(1) Veda and Upanishad Manthras,
(2) Sahitya and
(3) Agama rituals proper

at a cost of Rs.200/- a month. The Muzrai Superintendent proposed to establish the school at Bangalore for the reason that the school, being the first of its kind, required careful supervision, and, that at Bangalore, it would have the benefit of the advice of the Agamiks attached to his office besides personal supervision by himself. This proposal commended itself to me. On the question being submitted to the Dewan, he recorded an order that the school might be located in the Maharaja's Sanskrit College at Mysore and the management vested in the College authorities as, by the adoption of such a measure, there would be savings inasmuch as no separate classes for teaching Vedas and Sahityas would be necessary, while only classes to teach Agamas would be required. The Dewan further observed that, as there were in the Mysore City some important temples, the students would also be enabled to get an insight into the practical working of those institu-and he desired that this aspect of the question might be considered and the Mysore Sanskrit College authorities consulted in the matter if necessary.

3. The President of the Mysore Sanskrit College, who was consulted in the matter, has forwarded an extract from the proceedings of the Meeting of the Managing Committee of the College, held on 4th August 1920, to the effect that the Committee is willing to supervise the Agama Classes and that they may be located in the said College and requesting that arrangements may be made for giving adequate stipends to students seeking admission into the classes.

4. An order has accordingly been drafted directing the opening of the Agama Classes in the premises of the Maharaja's Sanskrit College at Mysore City and vesting the management thereof in the College Committee; in this order the Muzrai Superintendent has been requested to submit, in consultation with the President of the Committee, a statement showing the details of establishment required for the purpose and the scholarships that may be granted to the students seeking admission into the classes.

The draft is submitted for His Highness the Maharaja's gracious approval.

NOTE

SUBJECT Agama Schools.

----:0:-----

In para 3 (b) of Government Proceedings No.1103-13/ Muz.599-18-2 dated 28th September 1919 the Government have sanctioned the - - appropriation for the establishment of Agama Schools of a sum of Rs. 2493-10-0 out of the annual interest derivable from the General Muzrai Fund constituted under that order and they have directed that the scheme of Agama schools should be elaborated by the Muzrai Superintendent and sanction obtained thereto.

2. I have considered the question in consultation with Agamiks and others competent to offer advice on the subject; and I submit the following detailed scheme for the favourable consideration and orders of Government.

3. Course of Studies.

The Agamas in vogue in the temples of the State are of 3 different schools.

Viz:-1. Saiva Agama.GPB--600--17 2 14

2.Pancha Ratra Agama

3.Vaighanasa Agama.

It is necessary to provide for instruction for the archaks of all the three schools. A separate course of studies for each of the thre schools has been drawn up in consultation with learned agamiks and other conversant with the subject. The course of studies which will be spread over 4 years (which is the minimum period required) will begin in each case with the most elementary lessons and extend up to a standard sufficient, to enable the student to acquire a fair knowledge of the temple Agama and to make him competent to do the Nityakatle and Hutchukatle services including the conduct of car and special Utsavams with an intelligent - - grasp of the rituals. The course of studies proposed may be kindly approved for adoption.

4. Establishment:--The lessons comprise

(1) Veda and Upanishad mantras.

(2) Sahitya.

(3) Agama rituals proper,

Of the above, Nos.1 and 2 are common to all the schools and the students of all the three Agamas may be taught these subjects together. One teacher for Veda and Upanishad, and another for Sahitya will be therefore sufficient. Separate teachers are required to teach the different systems of agama:--

5. The Establishment for all the branches will consist of:--

1.	One Vedic and Upanishad teacher on	Rs.	25-0-0
2.	One Sahitya teacher	"	25-0-0
3.	One Saiva Agama teacher.	"	40-0-0

4.	One Pancha ratra Agama teacher.	Rs	40-0-0
5.	One Vaighanasa Agama teacher.	Rs.	40-0 -0
			170-0-0
	One peon.		8-0-0
	Petty Contingenies.		2-0-0
	Total Rs.		180-0-0

would not the Supdt be taken for the purpose? His status with suitable hair to more respect & obedience orders

6. As regards the supervision of the school, none of the regular teachers will be competent to be appointed as the Head of the Institution. This may be entrusted either to the Head Clerk or other official of my office, who besides superintending the work of the school,may attend also to the correspondence of the Managing Committee and hold charge of the Committee's Records - - all in the morning hours in adition to and without prejudice to his work in this Office. This official selected for the post may be given a small allowance of Rs. 20/- for this responsible extra work.--

7. Should this proposal be approved the cost of the establishment will come up to Rs.200/- a month and the allotment of Rs. 2493-10-0 sanctioned in the Proceeding of 28th September 1919 will be just sufficient to meet the establishment charges of one central school providing for tution in all the three Agamas.

8. The school will draw pupils only from the archak classes; and considering - - the general poor condition in life of the archaks as a class it will be necessary to grant adequate stipends to almost every one of the pupils from the very outset, as other wise, we are not likely to attract students to the school.

9. Having regard to the present market conditions the minimum of the stipend should be fixed at Rs. 8/-; and allowing for higher stipends as an encouragement to earnest pupils in advanced courses, the average of the stipend may for purposes of the Budget be put down at Rs. 10/-.

10. The money for these stipends may well be drawn from the surplus of such Temples as command a large income and can spare money for such useful purposes without prejudice to their own requirements. The payment of scholarships to Agama students will only be a legitimate charge on the funds of the temples whose proper up-keep is dependent on the revival of the Agama Sastra which without such special encouragement is bound to die out.

I agree

11. I append a statement of Hindu - - Temples which may well contribute 25% of their annual savings out of the temples for award of scholarships to the students of the Agama school

12. The amount so far as these Institutions are concerned comes up to Rs. 2230/- a year, and if by reason of a rapid progress of the school, more funds are required it will not be difficult to

to find them either from other temples or even from private endowments from Mutts and the Public.

For the present the allotment of funds for purposes of scholarships as indicated in Col. 6 of the statement may be approved, the charge being noted as an addition to the regular Tasdik expenses of the temples - - already sanctioned.

Location of the School:--

13. The school will be the first of its kind, it is intended for the special education of the archak classes who are now woefully deficient in the knowledge of the elements of the rituals which they are expected to perform every day in Institutions held in great sanctity. As the future progress of Agama education depends much on the success of the school now started, the work of the school will have to be supervised, guided and regulated with great care tact and caution, I would therefore propose to establish the school at Bangalore so that it may have the benefit of the advice of the Agamiks attached to my Office. It will also enable me to exercise some - - personal supervision over the Institution.

This commends itself to me

Why necessary in my opinion

Institution

14. As for locating the school itself Mr. B.K. Garudachar has very kindly offered to place a building situated in the compound of the Tulsitota in the City at the disposal of the Muzrai Department for the purposes of the school for a period of 5 years. The offer may be accepted with thanks as, for the present, the school itself is started only as an experimental measure. The building is a puckka terraced one; and by situation and surroundings, eminently fitted for the Agama school. The temple in the Tulsitota and the temples of Sri Kasi Visveswara and of Lal Doss Veinataramana swami situated closely will serve very well for giving practical lessons to the students in the Tantras of Agama rituals.

Nos may be done

15. I may also here bring to the notice of the Government that Mr. Garudachar has offered to grant one scholarship to the school out of the Tulsitota Charity funds at his disposal. He has made the offer to me personally. It will be obtained in writing and submitted for orders shortly.

16. To help the Muzrai Superintendent in the work of the school, I propose the constitution of a managing committee consisting of :--

(1) The Muzrai Superintendent. President Ex-Officio

(2) Mr. Karpur Sreenivasa Rao.

(3) Praktanavimarsa Vichakshana
Rao Bahadur, R. Narasimha Char, M.A

(4) Mr. C.Rama Rao, Retired Assistant Commissioner.

(5) Mr. T.Lakishimnarasimha Rao, B.A., P.L.,

I am to request therefore that you will be so good as to ascertain the opinion of the College Committee in the matter and report the same for the Orders of the Government.

II Location of Agama Classes in the premises of the College.

With reference to letter No.112/Muz 498-19-2 dated 13th July 1920 from the Muzrai Superintendent to the President of the College Committee, enquiring whether the Agama Classes intended t be opened in the near future, may be located in the premises of the Maharaja's Sanskrit College, Mysore, and the management thereof vested in the College Committee, it was resolved that the - Muzrai Superintendent be informed that the classes under reference may be located in the College premises and that the College Committee is quite willing to take up the management of the Agama classes when opened.

The Committee is of opinion that unless arrangements are made to give adequate stipends to students seeking admission into the classes it would be impossible to attract students into them and to manage the classes.
